

User Name:

FredSMartin

Candidate email address

erik@idahofreedom.net

Would you be likely to support or oppose a bill to:

Raise the sales tax

Oppose

Lower the sales tax

Not Sure

Raise the income tax

Oppose

Lower the income tax

Support

Raise excise taxes on tobacco, beer or wine

Oppose

Lower excise taxes on tobacco, beer or wine

Not sure

Provide special tax breaks to certain businesses or industries

Support

Repeal special tax breaks to certain businesses or industries

Not sure

Collect sales tax on Internet sales by participating in the national Streamline Sales Tax Project

Not sure

Propose a constitutional amendment to require a two-thirds vote of the House and Senate on tax increases

Support

Propose a constitutional amendment to require a two-thirds vote of the House and Senate for fee increases

Support

Eliminate income and/or sales tax exemptions, credits and deductions in order to raise state government revenue

Oppose

Eliminate income and/or sales tax exemptions, credits and deductions in order to lower the overall sales and/or income tax rates

Not sure

Put in place stronger limitations on government spending in Idaho

Support

Reduce, reform or end participation in entitlement programs such as unemployment insurance, Medicaid and food stamps

Not sure

Expand participation in entitlement programs such as unemployment insurance, Medicaid and food stamps

Oppose

Repeal the use of urban renewal in Idaho

Not sure

Expand the use of urban renewal in Idaho

Oppose

Reform urban renewal by limiting the projects and holding elections for urban renewal commissioners

Support

Ban the Land Board or other government agencies from owning businesses that compete with the private sector

Support

Ban minors from using tanning beds

Not sure

Expand school choice options in Idaho including charter schools, public schools and home schools

Support

In general, I believe state government (select one):

Regulates too much, and such regulations should be cut